

Diversity Workshop: Saturday, November 5, 2011

In Partnership with the Black Business Association (BBSA) and the Latin American and Hispanic Business Association (LAHBA)

9:00 - 9:30 am	Check-in and Continental Breakfast Wells Fargo Room, Haas School of Business
9:30 – 9:45 am	Welcome – Wells Fargo Room Dean Rich Lyons
9:45 – 10:15 am	Keynote Speaker – Wells Fargo Room Otto Williams, Haas MBA '08, Manager for Global Business Development at Syncada from Visa, will discuss leadership opportunities in business and how to prepare for them.
10:15 – 10:30 am	Networking Break
10:30 – 11:15 am	Navigating the Admissions Process – Wells Fargo Room Overview of the application process by members of the admissions committees for the Full-time, Evening & Weekend, Berkeley-Columbia programs.
11:15 – 11:30 am	Break
11:30 – 12:30 pm	Mock Case Study – Andersen Auditorium David Charron, professor of Entrepreneurship and Innovation, will simulate a mock case study. Experience classroom life from the point of view of an MBA student.
12:30 – 1:30 pm	Lunch – Bank of America Forum
1:30 – 2:00 pm	Career Resources – Andersen Auditorium Lisa Feldman, Executive Director, MBA Career Management Group, will present an overview of the services provided to students and the most recent employment information for graduates of the Berkeley MBA Program.
2:00 – 3:00 pm	Alumni/Student Panel – Anderson Auditorium Haas alumni and students will discuss the value of their MBAs and their accomplishments since graduation.
3:00 – 4:00 pm	Reception – Bank of America Forum Talk to other prospective students, current students, and alumni. Experience the value of an MBA networking event.