

Women's Workshop: Saturday, October 22, 2011In partnership with the Women in Leadership Club

This year, the theme for our diversity workshops is "My Journey Toward an MBA". Regardless of where you are in the process, the workshops will equip you with a framework to evaluate if, why and when an MBA is the right path for you. Join us for an interactive day that takes you one step further along your journey.

8:30 – 9:15 am	Registration and Continental Breakfast – Wells Fargo Room
9:15 – 9:30 am	Welcome from Dean Lyons – Andersen Auditorium
9:30 – 10:30 am	Faculty Workshop – Andersen Auditorium Nora Silver, Professor and Director of the Center for Nonprofit and Public Leadership will lead a discussion on the new breed of multi-sector leader, sharing preliminary findings from her study of 2,000 leaders that reveal gender differences among leaders today.
10:30 – 11:30 am	Navigating the Admissions Process – Andersen Auditorium Members of the admissions committees for the Full-time, Evening & Weekend, and Berkeley-Columbia programs will provide an overview of the application process.
11:30 – 11:45 am	Break
11:45 am – 12:30 pm	Career Management Presentation – Andersen Auditorium Debra Underwood, Associate Director in the Career Management Group, will present an overview of the services provided to students and the most recent employment information for graduates of the Berkeley MBA Program.
12:30 – 1:30 pm	Lunch and Networking – Bank of America Courtyard & Forum
1:30 – 2:15 pm	Keynote Address – Andersen Auditorium Michaela Rodeno, Haas MBA'80, former CEO of St. Supery Winery in Napa Valley and Corporate Director, will discuss the leadership opportunities for women in business and how to prepare for them.
2:15 – 3:15 pm	Panel: Alumnae & Student Reflections – Andersen Auditorium Alumnae and current students from the Full-time, Evening & Weekend, and Berkeley-Columbia programs will share their perspective on Haas and the Berkeley MBA.
3:15 – 3:30 pm	Closing Remarks - Andersen Auditorium
3:30 – 4:30 pm	Reception and Networking – Wells Fargo Room The Women in Leadership Club is proud to host a networking reception with current students and alumnae.